MICROGRAIN "85"

Rated Finest of All Finegrain Developers by Leading Amateurs

The first few rolls of film you develop in Micrograin "85" will reveal the reasons why this ultra-finegrain developer is first choice with men who demand the finest in negative quality. It produces negatives of full tonal gradation . . . negatives that appear as positives when viewed by reflected light, thus saving tedious proofing . . . negatives you can enlarge to salon print size with contact print detail—and blow up to mural size, if you wish, without appearance of objectionable grain. It's easy to process, has long active life, and requires no additional exposure. Get a quart today at your dealer. Price, Dry, 80c qt.; Liquid, $1.30 qt.
